Abstract

Recent studies in biology and ecology show striking convergences with process philosophy (PP). Biologists today are debating the real nature of evolution and of life itself, which is increasingly considered as a set of interrelated processes rather than a set of tangible species and material lineages. This perspective of focusing on changes can also be found

The screenshot shows the Springer login interface. At the top, it says "ログインサービス: Springer". Below that is the Springer logo with the word "Springer". A subtext states: "The world's most comprehensive online collection of scientific, technological and medical journals." The form fields are labeled "ユーザ名" (User Name) and "パスワード" (Password), both with blue outlines. There are two checkboxes at the bottom left: one for remembering the login and another for displaying sending information. A blue "Login" button is centered below the checkboxes. At the bottom right, there are two links: "パスワードをお忘れの方はこちら" (For those who have forgotten their password) and "お困りの方はこちら" (For those who are in trouble).
